

EXECUTIVE ATHLETES

INTERNATIONAL

Description of Goods and Services for Executive Athletes International (EAI)

1. Personalized Coaching: EAI offers one-on-one coaching tailored to the unique needs of retired professional athletes. This service includes career transition coaching, leadership development, and strategic planning to help athletes smoothly transition into new professional roles.
2. Personal Brand Development: Our personal brand development service helps athletes create a strong, authentic personal brand that stands out in competitive markets. This includes crafting a compelling personal narrative, visual branding elements, and positioning strategies to highlight their unique strengths and experiences.
3. Marketing Strategies: EAI provides comprehensive marketing strategies to elevate athletes' presence beyond their existing fan base. This service includes social media management, content creation, public relations, and targeted marketing campaigns to build awareness and attract new opportunities.
4. Content Creation Services: We offer professional content creation services, including blog writing, podcast production, video creation, and more. This service ensures athletes have a consistent and compelling presence across various platforms, amplifying their reach and impact.
5. Programs and Workshops: EAI provides a range of programs and workshops designed to help athletes transition into roles such as authors, speakers, coaches, trainers, podcasters, and content creators. These programs offer practical skills, industry insights, and networking opportunities to support athletes' new career paths.
6. Events and Seminars: We host events, workshops, and seminars focused on leadership, personal development, and career transition. These events provide valuable insights, learning opportunities, and a platform for athletes to connect with industry experts and peers.
7. Done-for-You Solutions: Our done-for-you solutions encompass everything from personal branding to marketing and expert positioning, ensuring athletes can seamlessly transition and thrive in their new careers without having to navigate the complexities alone.

By offering these goods and services, Executive Athletes International (EAI) empowers retired professional athletes to find their higher calling and maintain a sense of purpose beyond sports, fostering a supportive and distinguished environment for personal and professional growth.

EXECUTIVE ATHLETES

INTERNATIONAL

This list of goods and services is not exhaustive. Executive Athletes International (EAI) provides a variety of additional offerings tailored to the unique needs of each athlete. Certain services and programs may be available at different levels, with varying degrees of support and customization. For comprehensive details about all our services and tiered options, please reach out to us directly.

Last updated: 7/16/24